Makin' Tracks

TALON 1990

Volume 12

Lloyd C. Bird High School

10301 Courthouse Road
Chesterfield, VA 23832

Enrollment — 1,639

Makin' Tracks may be the theme, but the team is commitment for Alicia Faggart, Jennifer Dyson. Back: Stacey Wirt, Christy Hammer.

CHESTERFIELD
COUNTY (VA)
LIBRARY

Trackin' the past, Steve Cormier announces the publication of Seige of Suffolk.

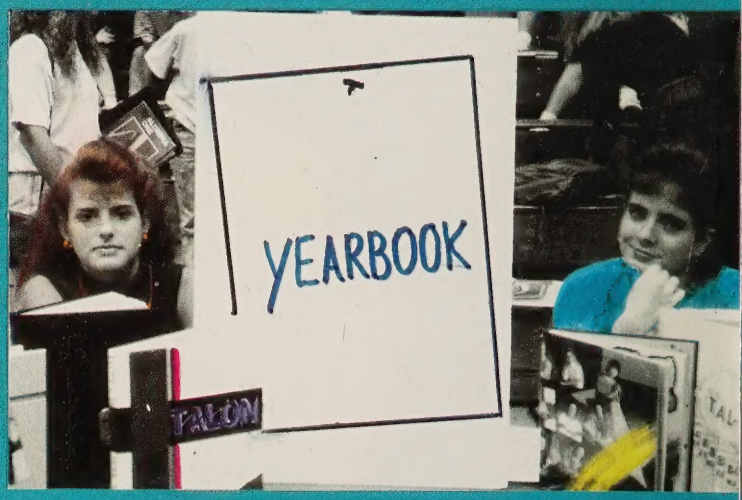
Markin' time, Mike Holloman, Steve Crittenden, John Purcell wait to see what develops.

Makin' Tracks

Aug. 24 seniors enjoyed the new photographic styles of Ron Stiers, Delmar and then signed the newly arrived TALON XI at the signing party. Both newcomers were enthusiastically received. Back to school schedules quickly filled with field hockey, tennis, football, pep rallies, dances vying with term papers, essays, exams for equal attention. As the sports and class schedules headed into the semester stretch, snow approached.

Dec. 8, we sat and ate those cookies while enjoying the first of five snow days. Too bad that only two were built into the schedule. Jan. through April without a day off. That was nearly impossible. Not enough? Try April 23 through June 13 with no break? Was that fun, or what?

Field trips were the salvation and off we went. The band to Florida, drama classes to New York, the rest to D.C. or closer to break the class lull.



Inviting interested people to join the staff are Makin' Tracks editors Angela Ray Kristi Finefield.

Q:

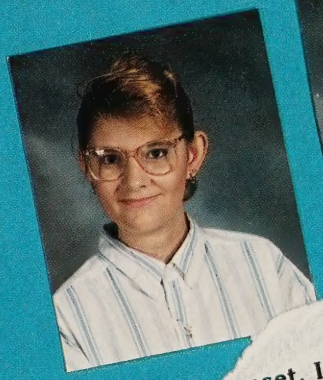
What was your reaction to the bomb threat on October 20?

A:

"At first I thought it was a replay of what happened in my freshman year."

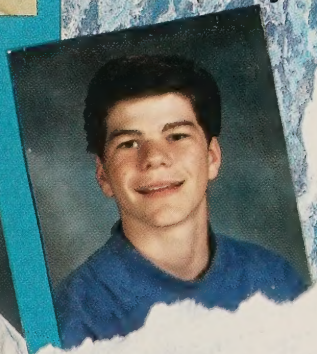
Kristie Fridley

Heisman Trophy presented to Aubrey L. Lindsey by Herff Jones' Reed Schweickert?



"I was very upset. I thought our school could behave better than they did."

Katherine Ebert



"I said, 'Just another cool day at school'!"

Russell Kamosky

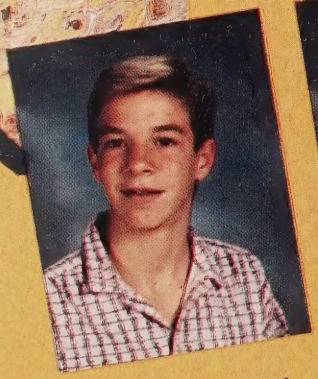
Q:

What about the '80's impressed you most?

A:

"Technology! From the past to computers, microwaves, CD's . . ."

Dennis Mason



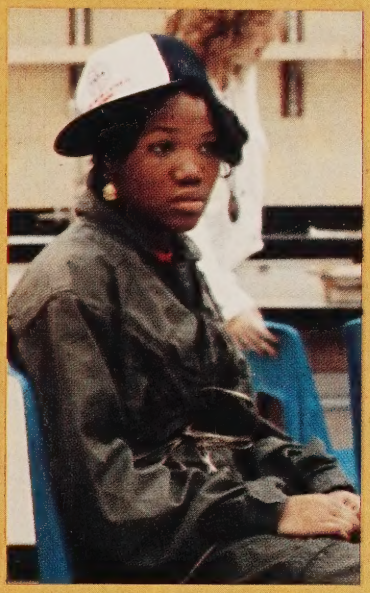
"Great Music"
Steven Dudley

"Space shuttle explosion"
Lori McCarthy

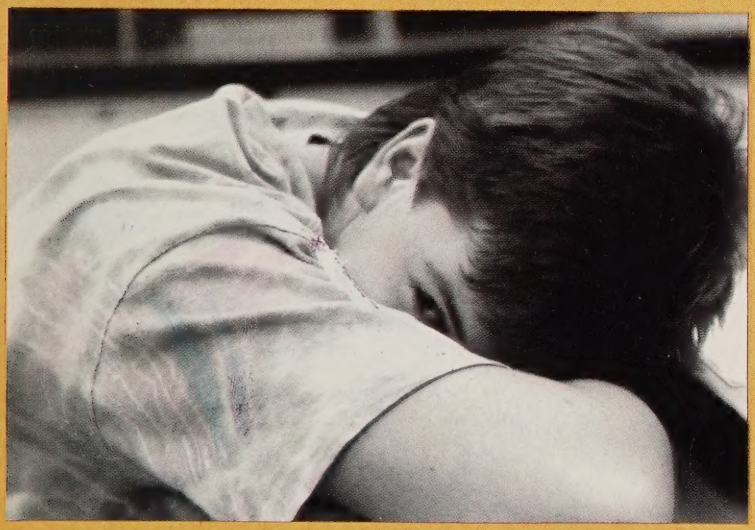
Makin' & Recordin' History

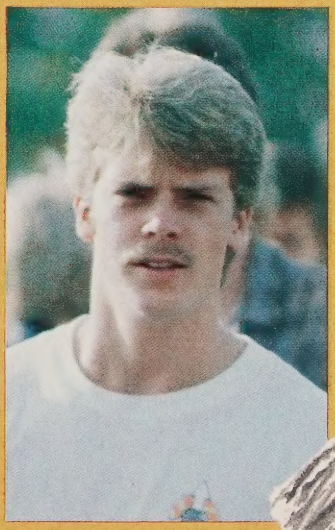
"The downfall of communism in Eastern Europe."
Scott Schucht

"The hunger for democracy . . . tearing down the Berlin Wall."
Toni Munn



1989: Berlin Wall crumbled; Wilder elected as first black governor; 1988: T.V. evangelists, Bakker and Swaggart dethroned; Jesse Jackson first black candidate for president; 1987: Oliver North convicted as political pawn; Jessica McClure rescued from well; 1986: Space shuttle Challenger exploded 74 seconds after lift-off; 1985: Live Aid musicians financed African famine relief; 1984: Mary Lou Retton first American woman to win an individual Olympic gold medal; 1983: KAL flight 007 shot down by Russians: Incident DENIED. 1982: Michael Jackson's Thriller; 1981: Sandra Day O'Connor appointed first female Supreme Court Justice; 1980: U.S. hockey team upset the Soviet Union





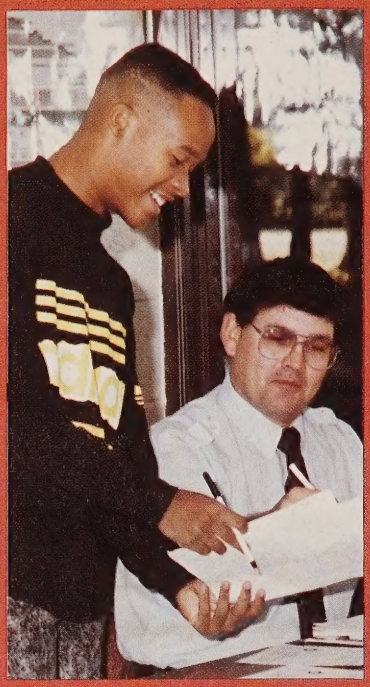
Sept. 22, 1989 — Hurricane Hugo hits South Carolina. Scott Billings, Jeff Diefenbach prepare relief supplies.

7:30 a.m. (any morning), David Jeter wonders, "Why so early?"

Oct. 17, 1989, Tug-of-war, David Richardson flexes senior muscles.

TALON thanks Eastern Airlines Manager, Hal Martin and all the gracious employees who made the Dec. 7 tour so enjoyable.

In academics, Ignatius Friend and Ron Paquette check that mark.



Impressive in the air, Greg Garrett leaves no tracks.

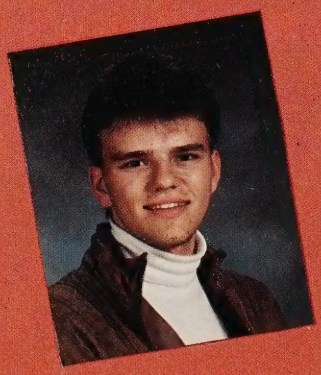
Makin' An Impression

Ever wondered who's who in a crowded room? The halls are packed with one-of-a-kind people you'll never forget! Between classes these differing personalities, cultures, lifestyles pass by each other, stopping to exchange smiles, friendly greetings or that all-important note.

Appearance is not everything, but teens know that that first impression is made by what one sees. More importantly, Skyhawks make an impression on teachers by studying hard to excel. Extra-curricular club, sports or volunteer activities impress colleges. While taking care of daily chores each one is makin' an impression on 1990.

"It has been realy cool so far."
Karen Mondziel.

"... new friends have made it more enjoyable."
Jeremy Herman



Primping with help, Jennifer Diefenbach braids Mike Crouch's hair.

Piggy-back pals — Donnie Marino never lets Mike Wall down.

Q:

Do you like 1990 so far?

A:

"It has been great . . . the best part will be when I graduate in June."

Sonya Scott

"It started out pretty rad."
Alesha Stevens

"I just moved here. I'm glad to be at Bird."
Nakia Lee

Q:

What sports figure do you associate with the 80's?

A:

"Bo Jackson. He plays two professional sports. That must be great . . ."

Colin Moore

The last game for Scott Journigan, Mark Waitkus who savor the moment after the George Wythe game.

"Larry Bird." Dennis Hairfield

"Barry Saunders" Terrence Brown.

Up for two, Kareem Hawkins.

Dodging Monacan link, Michelle Dynia, leader the offensive attack.

Leading the crowds in shouts, Kristen Stankavich, Kim Faulkner.

Makin' A Point

Sleep is not an after school priority. Vegging — out is for at home in front of the television. At school, these action characters have a ball the entire time. Instensity and concentration on the field, court, or track is also remarkable after a long day playing student to maintain the grades necessary to participate in a sport.

"Greg LeMond, first American winner of Tour de France. He has great legs."
Christy Hammer

Track team members find hamming it up comes easily.

Hangin' on in the top three in district, varsity players keep eyes on the top rung.

Makin' A Difference

Danetta Henderson modeled this classy black and gold ensemble as part of the annual DECA fall fashion show. Students work with area merchants to transport trends into the commons restaurant for a lunch show.

History club sponsored Tug-of-war pitted each class muscle against muscle for the coveted title of toughest for the year.

SCA sponsored Homecoming Week although hitting the bomb scare snag, came back strongly in Part II. The week had students making tracks from the dress-up days to the floats, to the bonfire, to the parade and game and finally to the dance. What a celebration!

"Liz Claiborne, Sea Dream, Aigner." Monique Clarke

"Clothes aren't that important in life." Brooke Harrison

Dressed to kill, Tiffany Perry, Jennifer Hall, Rebecca Narron, Amy Lentz, Michelle Poulston, Elizabeth Traylor, Penni Ozmar, Lori McGee, Jennifer Dyson, Karen Rowland, Yvonne Bissett.

Sophomores Brian Leinberger, and Mike Journigan on the ropes set to pull against David Richardson and the senior brutes who took the win.

Q:

What is your favorite clothing style?

A:

"I feel most comfortable in flannel shirts and Levis, or outfits by Union Bay, Bugle Boy . . ."

Marcus Nye

"Jeans and sweaters. Dressing up is something I rarely do."
Kirstie Hein

"Being dressed up makes me feel important."
Robert Thibodeau

Q:

What is your most challenging class?

A:

"My English class. Ms. Paulette makes you think."

Antoinette Elston

Peer advisors receive training before they give advice. Misty Mayo guides blindfolded Jim Bourque through a trust building exercise.

"French." Anu R.

"I guess English." Chris Roberts

French, Italian, Mexican . . . which to try first? Sarah Rilee finds the language banquet food delicious.

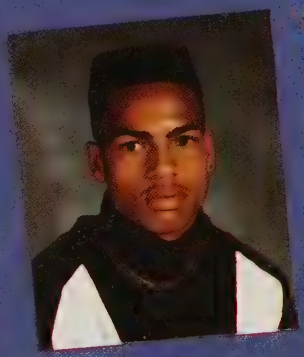
Makin' A Grade

"And on the dessert table, you won't believe . . . ", hungry banquet goers share the news of tasty morsels. Foreign language students, families and staff convert the commons into an extraordinary international cafe as a tasty way to learn culture. Activities out of class help language appreciation.

Elective courses from the special through the honors/advanced placement education give students a banquet of career/education choices.

Training teens to help teens through the Peer Advisory Program adds one more aid for students needing support in decision making.

Bouquets of balloons prepared by Susan Evans.



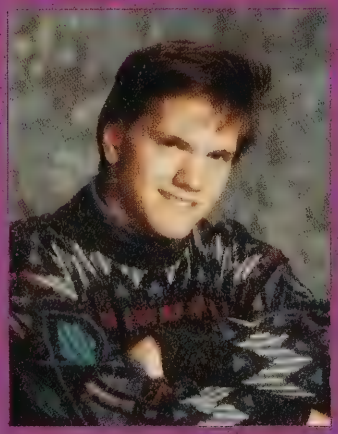
"Spanish challenges students to learn about the culture and traditions . . . "
Jamie Hall

Discovering biology, Carolyn Hensley, Alicia Faggart with guide, Pat Stanfield.

"I miss the wildlife and tranquility family and I experienced when we moved here 14 years ago."

Denise Armendinger

"If there can be too much of a good thing, this it is. By the way, how many more traffic lights do we need on Route 10?"



Rob Saunders

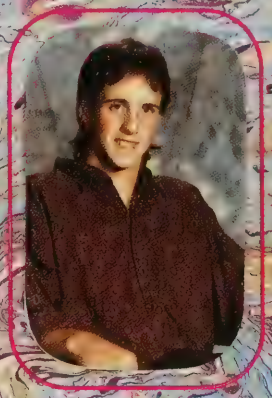
Q:

What do you think of all the construction?



"All the animals are going to die cause they can't live in parking lots and shopping centers."
Kameron Michelson

"My least favorite part . . . is the road-work. Roads are so BUMPY!"
Michelle Bierowski

Posting 12 successful seasons as Athletic Director, Bob Stacy has decided to hand in his calendar. No more juggling all those schedules.

Q: Where do you work? Why? Why not?

"I used to work about 35 hours a week. School is more important."

Bryan Hillis

"I'm in ICT. I work 20 hours a week at Ukrop's."

Mickie Peele

"I don't work. Teenagers should have fun."

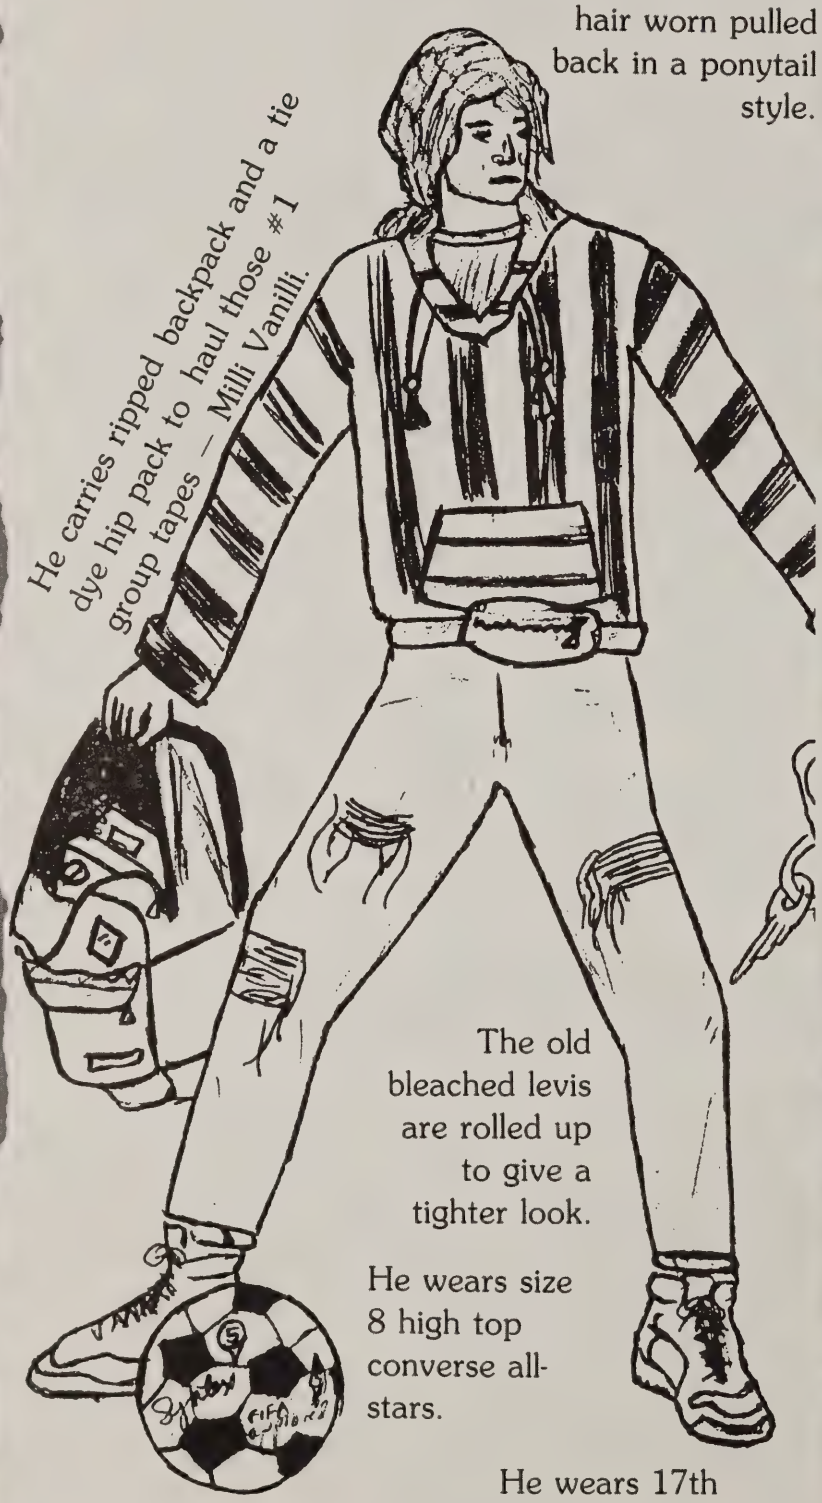
Q: What does a typical junior boy look like?

He is 5'7",

with his long brown hair worn pulled back in a ponytail style.

He carries ripped backpack and a tie dye hip pack to haul those #1 group tapes — Milli Vanilli.



The old bleached levis are rolled up to give a tighter look.

He wears size 8 high top converse all-stars.

He wears 17th Street watchband without the watch.

Q: What does the atypical junior girl look like?

She is 5'0",

with short blonde or black hair worn either curled or limp.

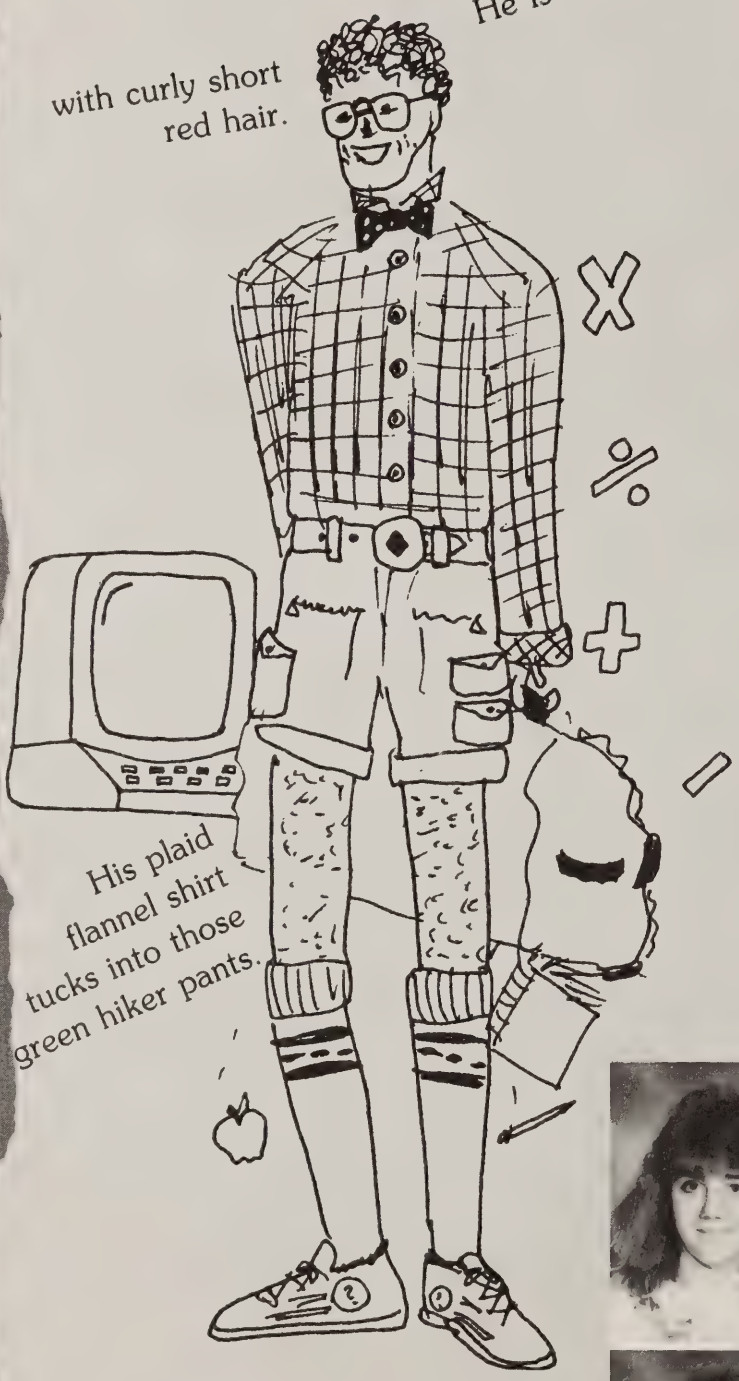
The freckles and dimples on her face are hidden behind horn-rimmed spectacles.

Those books, stacked just so, are her security blanket.

She raids closets to find Led Zepplin tee and outdated bell bottoms.

Her size 10 feet find home in neon jelly shoes.

Q: What does the atypical junior boy look like?



Feet decked out in blue, green and gold striped sports socks are at home in low top champs size 13.

Are You Historical?

Pages by Jennifer Galbavy

Is history class the high point of your day?

Your idea of a fun afternoon involves:

a) buying out the mall.

b) fighting with your little sister.

c) visiting the museum of the Confederacy.

Your heroes include:

a) Milli Vanilli and Bon Jovi.

b) your cat and your goldfish.

c) Thomas Jefferson and Abraham Lincoln.

Do you enjoy being an active, vital part of a club?

Can you maintain a "B" average, including a "B" in history?

Are you a believer? Dr. George Ritchie recounts his experience with life after death.

If you answered "yes" and "c" to the above questions, chances are that you are eligible for Gamma Delta Sigma, the honorary History Club.

The History Club is most commonly linked to the Tug-of-War, and while the History Club does sponsor that yearly function, there's much more to it than that. Members took turns using their homes as meeting places, providing a comfortable atmosphere for students to talk with guest speakers, who always had a lot to say. George Ritchie, for example, was wounded and declared dead during World War II. He claims to have caught a glimpse of the afterlife before he was revived. His tale astounded believers and skeptics alike.

Club sponsor Julian Porter surprised the members with a Christmastime ice cream party. The year ended with a trip to Ocracoke, a site historians believe was the destination of Sir Walter Raleigh's "Lost Colony."

Are you historical? Members of the History Club are. They are a group of students whose interest in the past does not end when the bell rings. They take the time to understand.

History teacher Steve Cormier discusses Civil War medicine, a topic which proves not to be for the weak of stomach. Sangeeta Darji reacts.

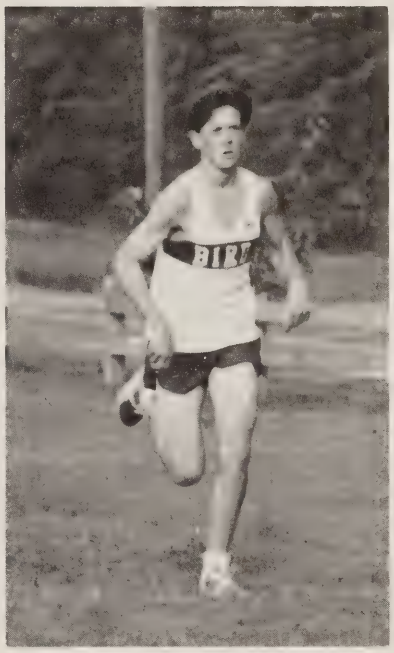
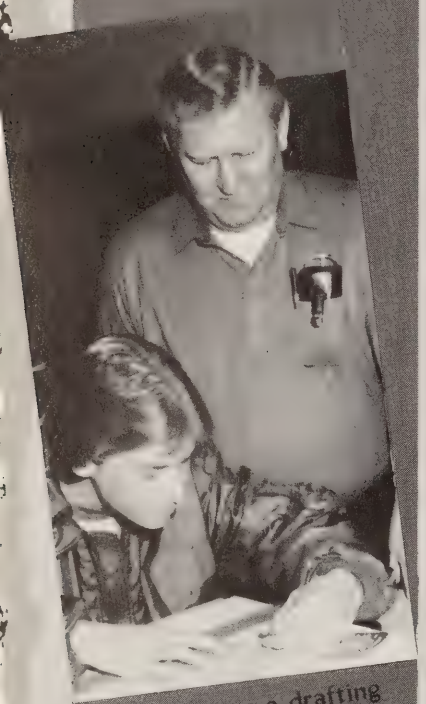
SPORTS



The graphic bar found on each page of this section spotlights one of our sports figures, giving specific information about athletic achievements.

Heading for the finish line, Spencer McElwee tests his endurance.

Going for possession of the ball, Brooke Harrison darts toward an opposing player.



On the job as a drafting instructor, Mr. Stacy guides Johnny Thigpen in his technique.

Going back in time to 1981, Joe Lotti, Bob Stacy and Doug Critcher show that special friendly rapport Bob Stacy has with students.

Getting ready for the last game of the season, Jason Fritz is recognized as a graduating senior, and Bob Stacy, as retiring Athletic Director.

Reflecting With Stacy

As he retires after twelve years as Athletic Director, Bob Stacy reflects on his career.

I was born in Bland County, Va., to Malem and Beatrice Stacy. I was the youngest of nine children (3 boys, 6 girls). So you can see, my father had to work extra hard at the sawmill in order to support us. I graduated from Bland High School where I had played baseball and basketball, lettering all four years. I served as captain of the basketball team during my junior and senior years. I attended the Apprentice School in Newport News and played baseball and basketball for them also.

I served two years of military service. After serving in Korea, I was stationed at Fort Lee. It was here that I met my wife, Nancy, who was teaching in Chesterfield County. We had one son, Scott. Before my marriage, I enrolled in the University of Richmond. I graduated with a B.S. in Economics.

I was offered a job with U.S. Steel, but I decided to enter the field of education. My wife and brother-in-law were both teachers and this influenced me a great deal. I took the additional classes for certification. I went to William and Mary College where I earned a Master's Degree in School Administration.

I was employed by Chesterfield County as a Math/History teacher at the old Thomas Dale High School. I continued at the new Thomas Dale as a Drafting Instructor. I also coached golf. My position was moved to the new Chesterfield Technical Center when it opened in 1975.

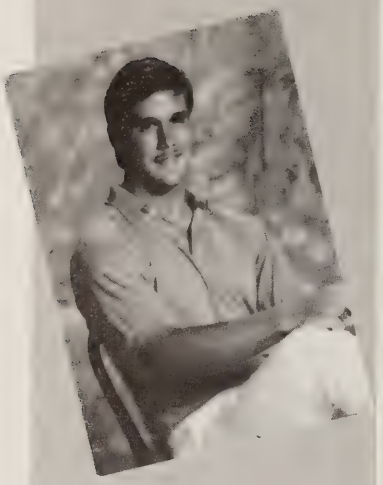
When Bird was under construction, I was approached and asked to consider the position of Athletic Director. It was the business/education background along with my involvement in sports that made this an ideal opportunity. Much had to be decided: school colors, motto, uniforms, monogram, nickname . . . for this new school. This was quite an exciting experience.

In twelve years, the Athletic Department has grown from eighteen teams to twenty-seven. Much hard work and cooperation from the administration, coaches, parents, students, fellow teachers in our school as well as in schools from other districts have brought the program to the success it is currently enjoying.

We have come a long way, and I am proud to have been a part of the growth. I have enjoyed working in the field of education. But there comes a time when one is ready for a little "R and R." This is it! I plan to enjoy my life to the fullest with my wife and family.

Remember one thing, there will always be a special place in my heart for the Lloyd C. Bird SKYHAWKS.

Sincerely,
Bob Stacy



A man of many talents, Mark Waitkus, was among the leaders in rushing, receiving, and scoring. Waitkus was second in rushing for the team, and fifth in receiving. He led the team in yards rushing in a game with 155, and tied for most points in a game with 12.

It all comes with the job, says one very muddy Scott Journigan as he takes a break.

On the sidelines, manager Angel Bateman watches out for the team's needs.

Securing possession for the team, David Stone dives for a pass completion.

Skyhawks Touchin' Down

Coming out even, the team earned a record of five wins and five losses. According to team members, two of the toughest games were against rivals Thomas Dale and Meadowbrook. However, the most exciting game for spectators and team members alike was the confrontation with Thomas Dale. With the score tied at 20, and only three minutes left in the fourth quarter, it was anyone's game. In the final 49 seconds, a two-yard scoring run clenched the victory for Thomas Dale with a final score of 27-20. Several players' skilled performances earned them places in the Skyhawk record books. Quarterback Chris Johnson set a season yards passing record and tied his own for season pass completions. Sophomore David Stone tied records for most receiving yards and most interceptions in a game. In the reception category, Mike Holloman tied records for most in a game and in a season.

Launchin' The Attack

With a final record of eight wins and just one loss, the team was defeated only by the strong offense of Clover Hill. The team's offensive attack combined with their defense resulted in four shutouts. One of the shutouts occurred in the opening game of the season when the team defeated Hopewell 14-0. The other three shutouts were against Henrico, Huguenot, and Monacan. After defeat at the hands of rival Thomas Dale last season, the team came out on top with a score of 14-6 in their third game. In their final game, against George Wythe, the team exploded for 24 points in the last six minutes of play to defeat their opponents 44-12.

As he waits on the sidelines, Kevin Cook watches the action on the field.

A weapon for the Skyhawk varsity offense, Mike Holloman tied the school record of most receptions in a game with five. He also tied his own school record for most receptions in a season with 24.

Stickin' It To 'em

As an exciting season came to a close, the record stood at three wins, three ties, and six losses. The team tied two difficult opponents, Midlothian and Monacan, at zero-to-zero. The girls exhibited a strong sense of teamwork and persistence in winning two games in double overtime. Aggressive offense was rewarded as Michelle Dynia and Ann Cathcart each scored two goals out of the eight total goals scored. Many of the players received honors in recognition of their hard work. Making the All District First Team were Michelle Dynia, Kim Lalonde, and Theresa Snow. Jenny Stevens, Michelle Dynia, and Kristi Tap made the All Academic First Team. Receiving All Regional Honors were Michelle Dynia, Kim Lalonde (First Team), and Theresa Snow (Second Team). Michelle Dynia also made All Regional All Academic. The newly formed J.V. team, coached by Becky Jilcott, played exceptionally well with a record of seven ties and only two losses. Courtney Harper was Goalie on the J.V. team and Freshman Carrie Shireman was the leading scorer.

Cross Country competed in several successful meets. The teams placed second at the Dominion District meet at Pocahontas State Park. The first race was for J.V. boys on a 3.1 mile course. Monacan took the win. In the girls race, Jennifer Dyson was the top finisher, placing the team in the regionals. The final race featured varsity boys. Stephen Pospahala, the 6th man, finished ahead of Midlothian's 6th man, placing second. The Cross Country teams competed in the Georgetown Prep Classic, the UVA Invitational Meet, and The William and Mary Invitational Meet.

The Indoor Track teams placed in several important meets. Two of the meets the teams competed in were The Va. Tech High School and The East Coast Invitational Meets. School records were broken in a variety of events. Ronald Jones set a school record in the triple jump with a leap of 40'3". Both the girls' and boys' 4x200 relay teams broke school records. In the 4x800 relay, the boys' team also set a record. In the 1000m and the 1600m runs, Jennifer Dyson and Spencer McElwee broke school records, respectively.

With only two starters returning, the team had many obstacles to overcome. Junior Kareem Hawkins led the team in scoring and rebounding as the center. In December, it was necessary for the team to play three games in three nights to make up ones cancelled by snow. Hawkins' stellar performance in these games won him the honor of being named player of the week by the Richmond News Leader. The first of the three games was against Colonial Heights. In this match-up, Hawkins came up with 30 points and 16 rebounds. The next night against Mills Godwin, he scored 29 points and pulled down 12 rebounds. Then, against Thomas Dale, a fatigued Hawkins still came out with 20 points and 13 rebounds.

Named as most improved player by Coach Tester, Denny Blevins was "the most consistent player the last 6-8 games of the season." Second to only Hawkins, Blevins came up with 225 total points, and averaged 10.7 per game. In point totals, Alex Hein scored 190 for third place.

Givin' It Their Best Shot

The team ended with five freshmen, four sophomores, and a record of six wins and thirteen losses. This relatively young team "worked hard, competed well, and never gave up," in the opinion of Coach Tom Wriston. Coach Wriston is new to the program and he feels the success of the season will be judged by the future performance of this team when members are varsity players. Coach Wriston named forward Robbie Bodenhamer as the most improved player on the team. Bodenhamer was new to the team as a sophomore and apparently has adjusted quickly. Point guard Junior Berry and three guard Quincy Waller shared the honor of being selected as the most valuable players on the squad. It is Coach Wriston's feeling that with work on their individual skills, these two should be good varsity players. The wins achieved by the team included two victories over rival Thomas Dale. The first time they were matched up against each other, Bird triumphed with a final score of 48-38. Their second meeting proved a bit more difficult and required extra effort. The final score was 63-52 — the result of superior performance on Bird's part in the overtime period.

Going up for a jump shot, Quincy Waller attempts to overcome his opponent's block.

Slappin' 'em To The Mat

When the season came to a close, the final record stood at six wins and six losses. The season opened with a one point loss to Midlothian. After two other losses, attacks on Huguenot and Colonial Heights were encouraging. The last four matches were victories. This improved the team ranking to sixth of 26 in the region. Though the season was "fair," many of this year's top wrestlers placed high in three important tournaments. In the first, Clover Hill, senior Mark Waitkus earned a gold medal. F.J. Jones and Bruce Goodman each won second place awards. Joe Garnett won a third place, and Jon Wiggins was awarded a fourth. In the District tournament, first place awards were won by Mark Waitkus, Bryan Leslie, Joe Garnett, and F.J. Jones. Second place was also earned by Jon Wiggins. In the last competition, the Regional tournament, seconds were awarded to Joe Garnett and Bruce Goodman. Mark Waitkus won a third place award, and F.J. Jones came up with a fourth place. From the team, Joe Garnett, Bruce Goodman, F.J. Jones, and Mark Waitkus qualified for the State meet.

Shootin' For Excellence

A final record of fourteen wins and six losses doesn't tell the whole story. Coach Chuck Tester felt that without the injuries which plagued the girls, they would have had a "good chance to make the state tournament."

One injury was to Kelly Perkins, a starter who was out for the last five games. Prior to her injury, Perkins had led the team along with Ayanna Lane. She was game high scorer in eight games with an average of 12.1 points per game and a total of 205 points for the season. However, Perkins wasn't alone in the spotlight as an offensive player by any means.

Ayanna Lane came out as the leading scorer with a total of 218 points and an average of 10.9 points per game. A transfer from Manchester, sophomore Amy Bradley, was third in total points. Filling out the starting list, Cam Phipps and Danetta Henderson each were game high scorer twice. Susan Smith was named most improved player. Along with defeating rivals Meadowbrook and Thomas Dale, the team came up with a long-awaited victory over Midlothian. Girls' varsity had not won there in four years.

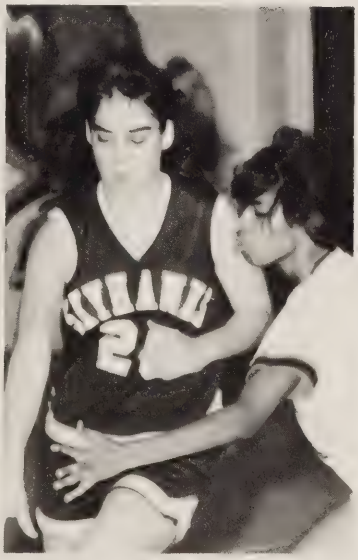
Fightin' 'em Off

The team consisted of three sophomores and girls who had never played organized ball before. So, as Coach Dockus put it, "We had our work cut out for us from the beginning." Under these unusual conditions, the team pulled out a record of ten wins and seven losses. The greatest strength of the team, in Dockus' opinion, was defense. She estimated that they scored about half of the points from steals. At the forward position, Karen Lee and Gena Thompson saw a great deal of playing time. Lee performed well as a shot blocker, and Thompson was 'just a great all-around player.' A team leader in offense, Thompson 'has a great deal of maturity and court sense for a freshman.' Thompson was the high scorer in 15 games, averaging 14.3 points a game. As the most improved player, Christy Harrington became "one of the top players" after having only one year of experience in middle school ball. Coach Dockus said the players 'cooperated with one another in order to achieve goals,' and 'every one of them is a winner.'



As her opponent reaches in to attempt a steal, Christy Harrington works to control the ball.

Learnin' All The Right Moves

A record of three wins and nine losses was earned by a very young golf team. The one senior on the team was Jimmy Bourque; he shared the leadership of the team with co-captains Rick Thompson and Jay Rosenstock. One of the four freshmen, Jamie Cary, showed improvement, in Coach Porter's opinion. The team's biggest victory was against Manchester on September 5th. With their lowest scores of the year, the team won by a mere four shots.

In its second year, the girls' soccer team's record was one win, ten losses, and one tie. With the exceptions of the matches against the highly skilled Clover Hill team, the losses were very close. The captains of the team were Cari Hamm, the goalkeeper, and Elizabeth Traylor. In Coach Peat's opinion, these two did not only lead the team athletically; they also added a lot of enthusiasm. On the offense, Jennifer Fritz and Meghan Cesario led the team's attack, while Shannon Whitman excelled as a defender.

Kickin' Up Their Heels

A record of three wins and nine losses was the result of a "tough schedule" for the varsity team. One of the seven graduating seniors, Donnie Marino, was known for his skill in motivating the team. Senior Rick FaJohn was praised by Coach Thompson for skill in quickly learning the new 4-4-2 system on the field. Brian Hite was named the most valuable player. Newcomer, John Cameron, piloted the defense; he was a factor in keeping the scores low and the games close. Junior Jamie Hobbs came into his own as the top goal scorer.

In recognition of outstanding play, Jamie Hobbs and John Cameron were named to the second team All-District. Honorable mentions were awarded to Andy Beach, Bruce Hall, Taylor Smith, and Michael Owen. On the junior varsity team, freshman Kevin Foster, goalie, was chosen to represent Virginia at Teams USA, a European select soccer team.

In Coach Thompson's opinion, the "record never reflects the effort and talent the team possesses" because the schedule is very competitive.

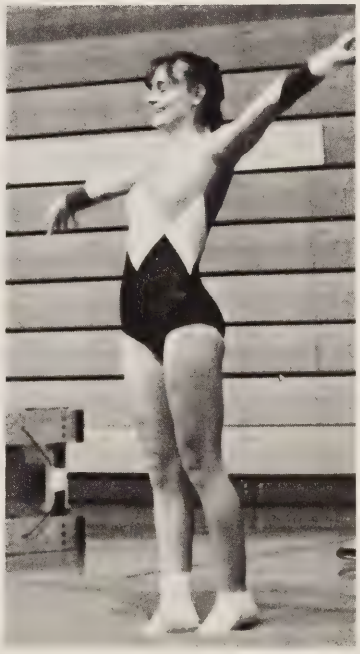
As Angie Felty knows, style is important.

Finishing with a flourish, the team finished second in both the district and the region. Their final record was seven wins and one loss. Eight team members received Winner's Circle Awards. This award requires a top three placing, a score over 7.0 or an improvement on the gymnast's best score. Outside the regular season, the team competed in the district and regional tournaments. In these two tournaments, the girls placed in all areas of competition. Placing in the top six of one or more of those areas in both the district and region were Amy Nagle, Julie Wilderman, Elizabeth Traylor, and Meg Weinstock. As described by Coach King, the team was "very hard-working" and "dedicated."



Relief on her face, Julie Wilderman lands successfully from her vault.

Settin' 'em Up

The boys' team finished the regular season with a record of seven wins and five losses. The Bird Invitational Tournament gave the team an overall record of 8-6. The top six players, were Alex Hein, Chris Wade, Jay Rosenstock, Tim Wade, Scott Thackston, and Eric Mayes. These six players represented the team in the matches. Brad Ashby was named as the most improved player. The toughest match for the team was the narrow victory over Monacan with a score of 5-4. After being defeated by Monacan in the first match 8-1, they were able to upset them at the second meeting.

The girls' team had only two senior members. The team's record of four wins and eleven losses reflects this youth. However, the team took second place in the Clover Hill Invitational Tournament against two other teams. Chrissy Fitzgerald was named most improved player.

Loadin' the Bases

With a challenging season, the Lady Skyhawks ended with a winning record of 9-6 and several District honors. There were two freshmen on the team, Christy Harrington and Dana Gammon, who both showed much potential. Both Michelle Little and Christy Harrington were named to the First Team All-District, while junior Becky Condrey was named to the Second Team All-District. Junior Diana Maxwell and 9th grader, Dana Gammon, were selected for the Honorable Mention Team. The team defeated neighboring Thomas Dale 12-9 and had big wins over Huguenot and George Wythe. The team lost a hard game against Monacan early in the season but came back later on to claim victory over the Chiefs. Proof of the team's offensive power, the scorebooks show there were nine homeruns and 99 runs batted in. Jenny Stevens led the team to their victories as the pitcher. Coach Thompson believes that this was the best hitting team in the district. The team's aggressive hitting and base running showed their intensity.

Playing first base as a junior, Diana Maxwell had a .409 batting average, hit two homeruns, and had 18 RBIs.

Also playing the infield as a junior, third baseman Becky Condrey batted in 14 runs, hit two homeruns, and had a .409 batting average.

Stealin' Home

Despite the fact that many of the girls had never played fast pitch softball before, the team finished with a record of four wins and seven losses. The toughest match, mostly due to this lack of experience, was the first game. The game was against Manchester, and they lost by just one point with a final score of 13-12. They were "very nervous and made errors early in the game," but they then "settled down and played good ball," according to Coach Stables.

Starting pitcher Brandi Flanagan was one of the team leaders with the most experience. In Coach Stables' opinion, she called the plays and kept "her head together during games." Other leaders were captains Jennifer Hite and Lisa Tinsman; they "worked well as liaisons between the team and the coach." First baseman Courtney Harper was also a leader as the most consistent player on the team. Outfielders Robyn Thompson and Diane Moore were named as the most improved players. According to Coach Stables, both worked hard and gained playing time throughout the season.

Comin' Up to Bat

The team that finished the season with a record of five wins and thirteen losses was made up of a collection of individual standouts. The team-selected most valuable player was senior Alan Pfeffer, the center-fielder. Pfeffer was also recognized along with pitcher Matt LaMack with All-District Honorable Mentions. LaMack was a "workhorse on the mound", with 45 innings of playing time as pitcher. In the categories of extra base hits, triples, and homeruns, Ron Creasy, Quincy Waller, and Steve Crittenden led the team respectively. However, the overall leading hitter was senior Fred Tarry. With five each, Jim Sale and Chad Honeycutt tied for the highest number of base steals on the team.

According to Coach Paquette, the most exciting play of the season occurred in an early game against Huguenot. When he came up to bat in the 7th inning, Mike Holloman "laid down a perfect suicide squeeze," drawing attention away from Waller on third so that he could score the winning run.

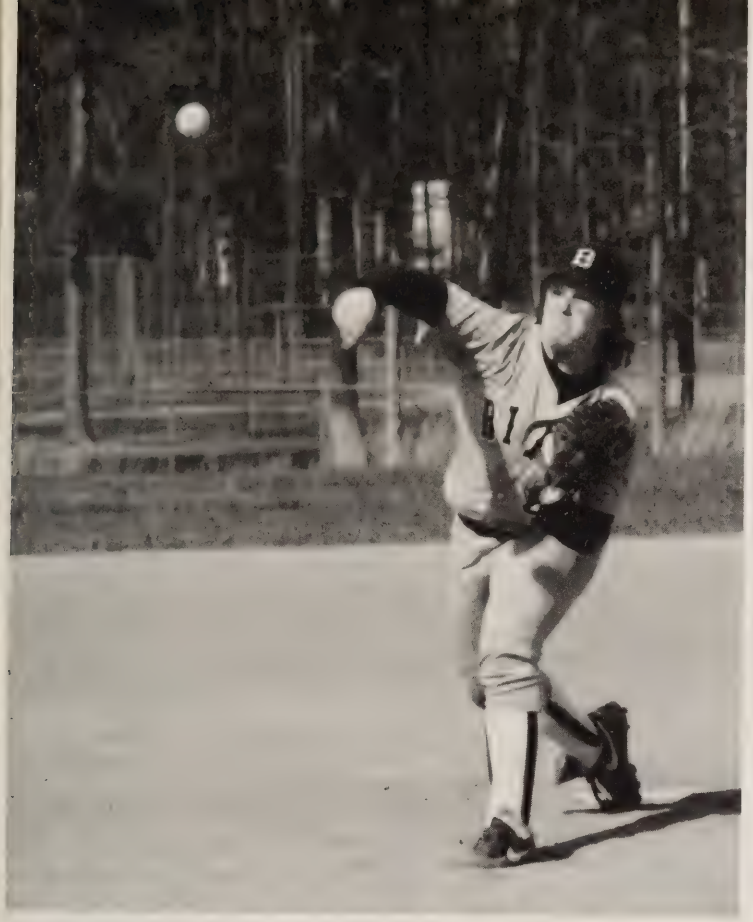
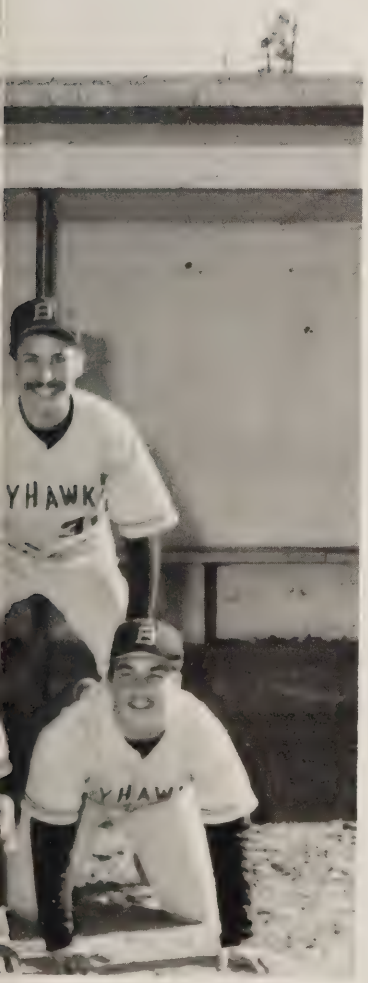
Makin' the Outs



With tremendous effort, John Swift hurls another through the strike zone.

With a record of fourteen wins and four losses, the team finished the season with the best record ever for a Bird J.V. Baseball team. This record placed the team in second place in the Dominion District. The team was led by Otis James; he had a "tremendous season," in the words of Coach Preskitt. He had the highest batting average and led defensively as the catcher. Defensive star for the team was returning freshman Josh Naeger. Eighth graders Brian Tingen and John Swift, along with freshman Robbie Hess anchored the pitching staff.

The most important game was a victory over Thomas Dale with a score of 11-6 early in the season. The team had lost the day before to Matoaca in a game for which they were not mentally prepared. With such a young team, Coach Preskitt felt it was important for them to bounce back with a victory, and they did.



Just in the nick of time, first baseman Jason Williams grabs the ball.

Dominatin' the District

An undefeated girls' Track Team ended the season with the Dominion District championship. They also took third place in the District meet with eleven members placing. In the discus, Shelli Miller placed first, Kirsten Brown second, and Tracy Thibodeau placed fourth. In the shot put, Brown took first, Thibodeau was third while Miller nabbed fourth. Ayanna Lane was third in the 400 meter and fifth in the triple jump. The 4x400 relay team placed third, while the 4x100 and the 4x800 teams placed fourth. Eight other team members, Jennifer Dyson, Julie Wilderman, Cathy Moore, Angie Sarek, Christy Hammer, Stacy Wirt, Chrissy Wilderman and Alicia Faggart finished in the top six for their events qualifying to compete in the Central Region Meet.

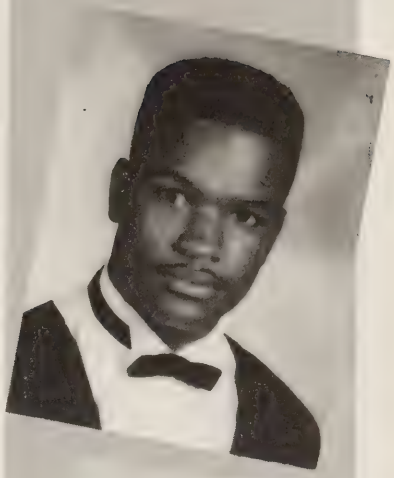
The Boys' Track Team also did well in the District meet, qualifying seven individuals and three relay teams for the regional meet. Chris Reynolds placed first in the high jump and third in the 400m. In the triple jump, Ronald Jones took third, as did Ernest Landrum in the shot put. Other regional qualifiers were Ronald Briggs, Steven Carroll, Jeff Trimble and Spencer McElwee.

With great intensity, Ronald Briggs clears a hurdle on the way to the finishline.

After a strong takeoff, Ronald Jones calculates the landing point.

Girls' Track Front: Julie Wilderman, Tracey Thibodeau, Debbie Sharkey, Ayanna Lane, Chrissy Wilderman, Stacey Wirt, Christy Hammer. Row I: Angie Cornett, Mgr; Chuck Tester, Coach; Marta Quesenberry, Martha Brisson, Angie Sarek, Leslie Vaughan, Amy Willingham, Shelli Miller, Alicia Faggart, Jennifer Dyson, James Rosendale, Coach; Stephanie Marshall, Mgr.

In the triple jump, Ayanna Lane placed fifth.



Noted as a team motivator, Ronald Briggs placed in the top six in the district in the long jump and the 300m hurdles.

In the district meet, Ayanna Lane placed third in the 400m and fifth in the triple jump, qualifying for regionals.

As she releases the shot, Cam Phipps completes the maneuver.

On the approach to take off, David Harper prepares to plant the pole to set a new height record.

Offering their knowledge and guidance to their squads are Junior Varsity coach Tammy Edwards and Varsity coach Virginia Wisneski.

At the Grand Finals, Jason Fritz gets a lift from Stephanie Hayes and two others.

Warming up the crowd at the bonfire is freshman Sharon Cooper.

Peppin' It Up

A new addition to the Varsity squad, Brian Hite, offers Lori McGee some support.

More than just wide smiles and enthusiasm, cheerleading also requires work and commitment. Displaying excellence in all these categories won honors for the J.V. and Varsity squads. The new year began at ICF camp in the summer. At camp, the J.V. squad took second place along with earning pep and spirit awards. During the school year, the squads maintained the routine of cheering for the football and for both the girls' and boys' basketball. In addition, the squads attended home soccer games to support the teams.

Competitions make up another part of being a cheerleader. On Jan. 12, the regional competition, sponsored by the Eastern Cheerleading Association (ECA), was held at Bird. Both the J.V. and Varsity cheerleaders came away with first place awards. In March, the two squads combined to form an elite squad of fifteen to attend the Eastern Grand Finals in Williamsburg. From this group, nine members also competed in the dance competition. Honorable mentions were earned in both the open and dance competitions.

Supporting the football team, senior Kim Faulkner performs with enthusiasm.

Halftime at a basketball game brings out Amy Lentz and the rest of the J.V. squad.

Varsity. Front: Shannon McFarland, Toni Cooper, Stephanie Hayes. Row 1: Ashli Saylor, Co-Capt; Tammy Schutte, Kristen Stankavich, Co-Capt; Christy Cash. Row 2: Kim Faulkner, Kelly Tanner, Lisa Stanley.

Using her backstage pass, Ashley Lewis grabs a moment with "New Kid" Joe McIntyre. "New kids On the Block" was the second most popular group according to the poll.

At Homecoming '89, Fred Tarry and Kim Beavers are caught in a private moment.

Lightin' Up The Night

So, who says it's easy to schedule and then to reschedule a bonfire to make sure everyone is safe. Pep Club sponsor, Lu Henderson, rained out for the first homecoming week, planned a winning evening when Homecoming Part Two was announced. Daylight savings time meant early pitch-dark time. While firemen worked diligently on the reluctant fire, friend sought out friend or bumped into a new one. Flames ignited filling the darkness with welcome light.

And Rhapsody's, Wendy Arendall sways as Chris Corde, Jason Kuti and the band play.

Warming by the fire, friends, Jennifer Hopkins, Christy Hammer, Melanie Agee, Kim Howiler point to more fun.

How did you feel being crowned Homecoming Queen?

"I was very surprised and complimented to be recognized by my friends."
-Jennifer Hall

Battling a Grimm's Fairy Tale, Beth Bedard stands her ground on the first place German float.

'60's clad Bruce Hall on the Junior float.

Jason Vineyard (35) in his first varsity game gains yards against Bulldogs.

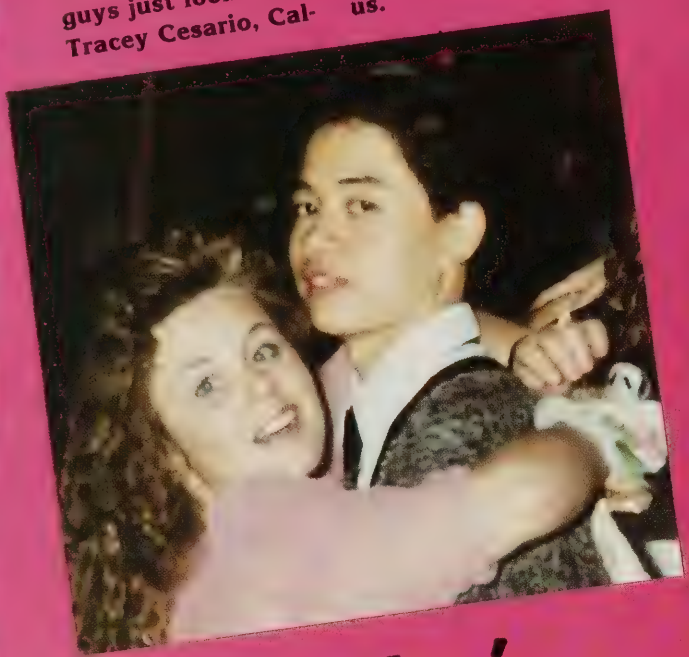
Graduating members of the band, Caroline Wagenknecht, Dawn Mingus, Stephen Raybould, Michael Sawyer, Kameron Mickelson, Mandy Burnette.

Takin' the Lap

Ever had one of those weeks? Originally scheduled for October 20, the Homecoming parade, game and queen crowning celebration fell on the worst possible week. Early Friday, a bomb threat forced the cancelation of all but the regularly scheduled game. Homecoming Part II gave students more time to work on floats. As night fell, floats approached. Twice around the track was all the time judges had to see which group had best demonstrated the "Historically Speaking" theme. Seniors captured first place in prehistoric rags carrying dinosaur bones. German Club's, Grimm's fairy tale was first place for clubs. The rain soaked track prohibited the winners from taking the traditional victory lap. The band's half-time show featured a tribute to senior members. Jennifer Hall, crowned queen, watched as Rhapsody danced for their royal member.

Does the expression on Class President Mike Wall's face tell anyone that seniors won?

Why is it that girls look so happy while guys just look cool? Tracey Cesario, Calvin Cosio, Mike Wall and Tara Zaffuto might be able to tell us.



Feelin' The Beat

"May I cut in?", "Should we dance?", and "Ouch' My feet hurt.", familiar phrases at the homecoming dance, Nov. 4. At first students seemed reluctant to step onto the dance floor, but this passed and the Roman ball room was filled with eager dancers. Street life supplied the perfect assortment of tunes to keep couples busy dancing with only occasional breaks for refreshments served by SCA members. Shoes scattered across the dance floor. Rock 'n roll in heels, No way! Formal attire and a pumpin' beat — what a combination.

Caught mid-sentence, Robbie Hess and Becky Eady.

Our for elegance, Melisa Wall and Mike Ellingsworth enjoy the dance time.

Deep in conversation, Stuart Ranson with Jill Hillis.

Street Life Lead singer takes a shine to Anthony Anderson will be tomorrow's headline.

CLASS

of 1990

Since it is her favorite color, Courtney Conk often chooses to wear solid black.

Definitely one person who takes great pride in her appearance, Toni Munn.

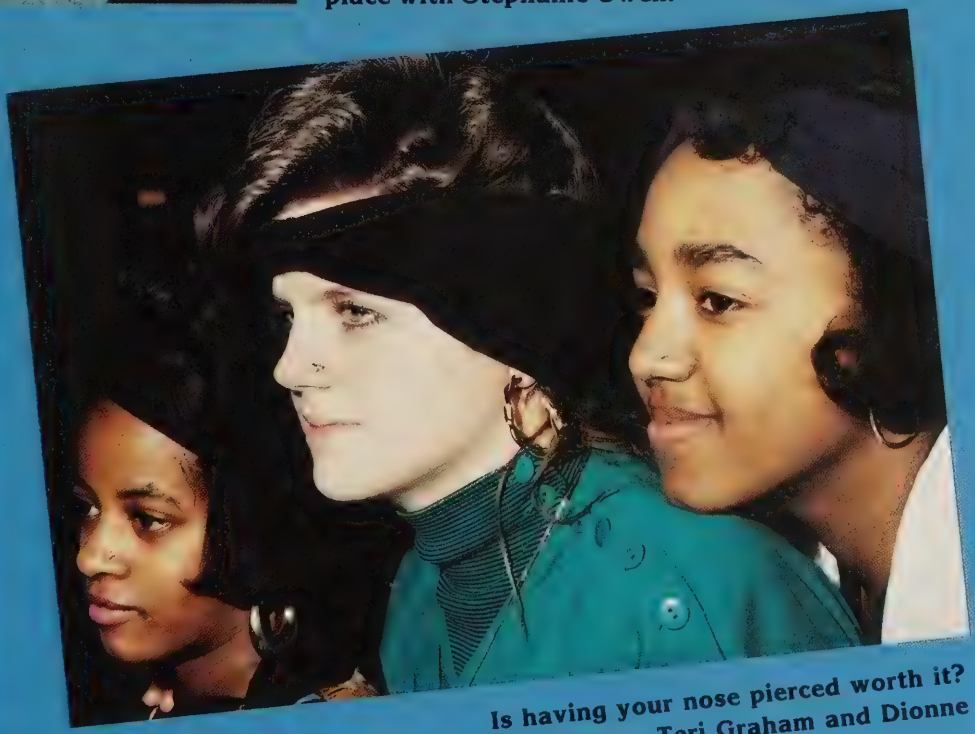
Trying out some new color combinations, Ashley Lewis and Karen Mondziel sport stylish sweaters.

Baggy pants and the color red set Jamie Hall on the right fashion road.

Makin' a Statement

What's in style? Denim jeans still top every teen's list, but new styles are makin' their way into fashion-conscious closets. Screamin' colors and unexpected combinations highlight the halls. Although most teenagers would choose casual and comfy over formal wear, gold lame has its place after five. Nose rings also became popular for those who were willing to suffer for style. Whether you spend five minutes or an hour and five minutes on your hair, trendy 'dos are definitely hot!

Still the hottest style around, denim finds its place with Stephanie Owen.



Is having your nose pierced worth it? Nikki Berry, Teri Graham and Dionne Robinson say yes!

Ready for a night on the town, Lisa Stanley and Alisha Gay sport after five wear, blacks with gold.

Those guys with taste include Rob Tuck, Michael Holloman, Chris Johnson, and Todd Woodfin.

Guys have fashion sense too! Sporting the now popular cardigan sweaters and some new color combinations (sweaters) within sweaters. Lookin' Sharp! Checking the mirror to see if everything is still in place — makeup is the key to many girls' "looks". Accessories can add spice to almost any outfit just by adding a couple of bracelets, necklaces or earrings. But not necessarily just a couple of earrings. Nowadays, most girls, guys too, have not just one hole pierced, but two or three in each ear.

Check that makeup, Arlette Harris!

Being unusual is the key to Marti Watson's style. Can you guess the occasion?

Another outstanding sweater sported by Tonya Donovan!

What's the expression? First, we take the print and then we do what? Leslie Vaughan definitely has a question.

As Debbie Wilkerson signs for the hearing impaired, the Scapino assembly reaches it audiences.

Notice those tracks Becky Patton is makin' in Skidz!

So why so sad, Shelley Smith has a ticket to pull???

Makin' A Face

One doesn't always need to speak to convey an attitude. Facial expressions and body language can often succeed where mere words fail. No one needs to tell this to the students, however. They need no assistance in showing their excitement for high school life — right?! Well, maybe not excitement, but . . . oh, never mind. Anyway, the point is that faces are expressive.

Something has caught Tara Snodgrass' attention.

Looks like Stephanie Hite would rather be any place other than here. Agree?

"... and then I'll ... SCAPINO (Stuart Ranson) runs through his plans to outwit Geronte.

Scapino

A play written by a Frenchman, set in Italy, featuring Italian speaking Spanish with British accents and some kind of Oriental gibberish thrown in?!

The Drama Department's first choice, Scapino was a hilarious comedy set in a harbor cafe. Amid gigantic boxes of spaghetti noodles, the story unfolds. Two fathers want their two sons to marry two nice girls, but the sons have chosen their own girls behind their fathers' backs — tsk, tsk. Madcap adventures follow with confused identities until — bang! — the problem is solved! Happy ending after all. The two sons unknowingly picked the right girls and the two fathers were happy after all.

Oops! Waitress, Tara Zafutto reacts to Jason Lira's greeting.

Always in search of the perfect, suitable wife, Geronte (Keith Clark) seems to find the gypsy, Kelly Starnes very acceptable.

Curtain call bound Jason Olsen, Martin Vaughan, Chris Pearce, Shannon McFarland, Stuart Ranson, Greg Morgan, Jeff Dowdy, Kelly Starnes.

Q:

What was your first reaction to being named Mr./ Miss L.C. Bird?

"I was totally shocked. It was the last thing I expected. I even had my winners picked!" Kim

"I was surprised and overjoyed that I was going to be the first of what hopes to be a continuing tradition here at Bird." Mike

Contestants and escorts, Karen Rowland and Mike Wall, Debbie Sharkey and Scott Thackston, Heather Weir and Rich Jennings nervously wait for their entrance.

Struttin' Their Stuff

"What does it take to be Miss L.C. Bird? That annual question is answered as a new queen is crowned. The pageant broke away from the annual talent show, finally meriting a night all its own. In addition, the men got a chance to "strut their stuff" at a first-ever Mr. L.C. Bird pageant.

So what does it take? Candidates were judged on poise and grace, appearing in both casual and formal attire. The judges also asked an opinion question of each candidate; it varied from person to person. "It could be anything from dating to drugs," said SADD representative, Kim Gray.

Chris Pearce and Michelle Snodgrass introduced the Miss L.C. Bird candidates, while Shannon McFarland announced the guys. One by one the hopeful candidates crossed the stage, while a list of their accomplishments was read. Local band, "Hangman's Jury," played while the judges made the decision. It didn't take long. Quincy Waller and Lisa Stanley were the runners-up, while Mike Wall and Kim Faulkner became Mr. and Miss L.C. Bird for 1990.

"Dance of the Decade"

Living up to its name, this "Dance of the Decade" was a true success. The "Boomers" provided entertainment and music for anyone willing to brave the dance floor, even allowing junior Bryan Farmer to play drums during "Old Time Rock and Roll." Black and white decorations, flowers, balloons and murals dressed up the Richmond Center providing the perfect background for the evening. Pictures were available, and nearly every couple was willing to stand in line to take advantage of the opportunity. The main attraction of the evening was the traditional senior walk, after which Greg Zapar and Ashli Saylor were crowned King and Queen. As the band played the classic "Stairway to Heaven," the Dance of the Decade came to a close at the stroke of midnight.

Representing the School Board, Griffin R. Burton congratulates students on this major accomplishment.

Words of encouragement from Salutatorian, Beth Fighera remind students that graduation is but another beginning.

Takin' That Last Look

Concerned with the question of "ethics", Valedictorian, Ashley Harwell challenges graduates to keep the successes in perspective.

Senior week May 28 through June 1 offered students one last fling before final exams.

Monday initiated Field Day a new tradition created by the Senior Action Council to bolster school spirit. Students competed for class points. No one felt pain as seniors walked away with the win. The graduation picture was snapped Tuesday before the awards assembly for juniors and seniors. Deserving recipients took those awards to the bank.

Students dusted off that sense of humor or of absurd for Wednesday's Gopher Day. Seniors' orders to carry books, to feed them lunch, to carry them piggyback or to roll toilet paper down the hall were happily followed. Thursday replaced teachers with seniors in some classes. New teachers found that preparing and teaching a lesson is not such a 'fluff' activity. Friday, June 1 the torch was passed to the Class of 1991 during the assembly. Friends grilled friends and teachers by leaving nasty and nice items in the traditional last will and testament. The senior lunch capped off the week. Exams would be next and then . . . freedom.

Caps into the sky and it's over. Time to hug, promise to write, and to leave. The tenth graduation and the first of the decade.

'Thank you' mouths Stephen Raybould to the faculty after receiving both the Outstanding Senior Award and the Faculty Scholarship presented by Chris Seaton.

Sayin' Goodbye

June 13, the tenth annual ceremony welcomed a record crowd. Griffin R. Burton brought congratulations from the School Board. Aubrey L. Lindsey presented the Mildred Phillips Spencer Scholarship to Debbie Sharkey. Stephen Raybould received the Faculty Scholarship and the Outstanding Senior Award. Valedictorian, Ashley Harwell; Salutatorian, Beth Fighera; and Class President, Mike Wall; spoke.

Senior week pranks continued as seniors taped tiles on Mr. Lindsey claiming these were from the missing front hall artwork. That untruth was forgiven with its return.

It's time for Christina Abbott, Amy Abbott, Sue Adams and Lori Akester to receive diplomas.

Spotlightin' Talent

"Break a leg" were words of encouragement as contestants of the L.C. Bird Talent Show stepped into the spotlight. And what talent! From dancing, to singing, to playing instruments, to even . . . ducks! A variety of dazzling performances made the Talent Show a tremendous success. Each act was comically introduced by hosts and hostesses, Shannon McFarland, Jeff Dowdy, Jason Olsen, Lisa Jones, and Mike Raybould. After the curtain closed to the performances, the winners were announced. First place was awarded to Kelly Starnes, who sang "Music of the Night" from Phantom of the Opera Caroline Wagenknect and Jon Sheppard rocked their way to second place on the drums; and Scott Campbell took third place singing "Just a Friend" — Donald Duck style.

While playing the guitar, David Holmes sings one of his own songs.

A member of "Rackett", Brian Farmer serves as the band's talented drummer.

Quaking his way to third place, Scott Campbell sings "Just a Friend."

As a member of the "Cookie Cutters", Caroline Wagenknect drums her way to second place.

Term papers due, research experts Heath Edmiston and Rick Stewart examine all the information.

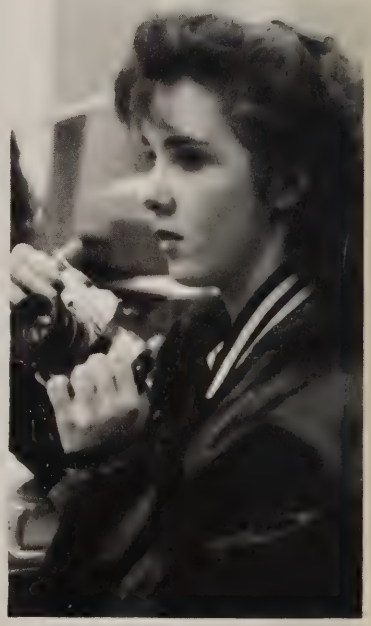
Checkin' the Tracks

That feeling of a "fresh start" accompanied the welcoming of a new decade. Tired of "go ahead, it's the 80's" thinking, we headed toward a more positive Nike Air "Just Do It" approach to everything. Checking those tracks we left through the year shows us the gains and losses we came through together.

Two original staff members, physics teacher Jean Sadler and Athletic Director Bob Stacy, retired at the dozen years of service mark. George Perry retired from the math department. We pulled together to share the grief at the loss of Lewis Turner in December, then Todd Schlimme and Tracy Robertson within two days of each other in May. What an emotionally emptying experience for all.

In sports and academics the gains and losses were recorded. The queens and kings crowned. The dances and their memory books filed away. It is time for surfing and resting while checkin' the tracks each of us made toward whatever goals were set in January. Come on, Just Do It, after all, it is the 90's.



Checking the focus, Beverly Richard aims to keep TALON in good pictures. Her hard work is appreciated.

Q:

What about 1990 impressed you most?

A:

"The new 16 cylinder engines for sport cars. Kimberly Applewhite"

"I have admired the way that the world leaders are working together to achieve unified peace." Amy Abbott SADD. Front: Kim Howiler, Amy Nagle, Dana Zaffuto. Back: Jennifer Kuzmaul, Alisha Stevens, Michelle Dynia, Charlie Ingalls, Tracey Thibodeau, Tara Zaffuto. Members remind students not to drink and drive. Students were not allowed to speak with these "dead" classmates.

"I met my beautiful girlfriend Tina Waldron." Howie DiSavino

Tracy Robertson

Everybody has a heart.
It's the most sensitive part.
Life would be much easier,
if no heart was ever broken.

Todd Schlimme

Two years ago, while walking from Salem Woods to Bird, we passed the electrical box beside the tennis courts. Todd noticed that his finger would draw on it, so he wrote his name in huge letters from one end to the other. I guess even the funniest people doodle when they're bored. M. Little

March 21, 1974 — May 2, 1990

Lewis Turner

On Monday evening Dec. 25, the Lord whispered that sweet melody to Lewis Earl Turner. Our hearts were saddened by the passing of our loved one; but now our hearts are glad because we know that Lewis is with the Lord. No more pain, no more suffering. He left a message behind, 'Don't give up.' Turner family

COLOPHON

Makin' Tracks volume 12 of TALON was lithographed by Herff Jones Yearbook Co., 525 Boyds School Road, Gettysburg, Pa., 17325. The book featured 216 pages printed on 100 lb. Bordeau paper. 100 lb. Eurogloss was used on color signatures 1 and 3.

The original lithographed cover art was tie dyed by Angela Ray reproduced on Record Buckrum Natural. The cover material was 160 point binder's board with smyth sewing and rounding and backing. White endsheets with full color and tie dye art featured contents and colophon, Senior and underclass portraits and group shots were taken by Ron Steirs. Other color and black and white photos were supplied by Talon staff members and volunteers Athena Fortune, Beverly Richards, Ed Jones, Nancy Waitkus.

Artwork for color and black and white marblized and webbing prepared by Angela Ray, Kristi Finefield, Jennifer Hairfield with special help from Helen Sanders. Corinne Farmer created the artwork drawings for the class and faculty sections.

The staff would like to thank H.J. personnel Michael Smith, Barbara Hale, Judy Smith and the Gettysburg plant: Helen Sanders, Jerry McLaughlin, the Journalism II production class and the student body for all the help each has given to this production.
